Dog parade for man's 100th birthday

eslvideo.com Quiz by: rmd

1.) What did Robert Moore want for his 100th birthday?

○ a.) To hang out with some dogs

○ b.) To have a big party

○ c.) To receive lots of gifts

2.) How did Allison organize the dog parade?

○ a.) She sent out invitations

○ b.) She posted on the next door app

○ c.) She called all the neighbors

3.) How many dogs did Allison hope would come by?

○ a.) Around 20 dogs

○ b.) Over 200 dogs

○ c.) None of the above

4.) How many neighborhood dogs actually showed up?

○ a.) Around 20 dogs

○ b.) Over 200 dogs

○ c.) None of the above

5.) How did the dogs come dressed for the occasion?

○ a.) In tiny cowboy hats

○ b.) In fancy Tuxedos

○ c.) Both a and b

6.) How did some dogs arrive at the parade?

○ a.) In classic cars

○ b.) On bicycles

○ c.) On skateboards

7.) What did the partygoers shower Robert with?

○ a.) Cards, flowers, and cupcakes

○ b.) Money and jewelry

○ c.) Toys and treats for the dogs

8.) How did Allison describe the birthday celebration?

○ a.) Boring and uneventful

○ b.) Special and full of love

○ c.) Disappointing and sad

9.) Who is the narrator of the story?

○ a.) Robert Moore

○ b.) Allison

○ c.) Jen

10.) What is the purpose of the narrator's posts?

○ a.) To share positive stories

○ b.) To organize events

○ c.) To count down the top stories of the year

Gap-fill

Complete these sentences with the words in the box.

Wordbank

previously hang out Partygoers positive explain showed up organized walk by

1.) This man just wanted to pet some dogs for his 100th birthday, so his family _____ a neighborhood dog parade. This story is the number five top fun story of the year, and for good reason.

2.) Robert Moore, who's been a dog lover for a century now, turned 100 on June 17th of this year. He didn't ask for much; he just thought it might be nice to ____ ___ with some dogs.

3.) So his daughter, Allison, took to the Nextdoor app, encouraging neighbors to ____ __ their house that day so that he could see their dogs. She was hoping around 20 dogs might come by, but she was more than pleasantly surprised by the actual turnout.

4.) Over 200 neighborhood dogs _____ __, lining the block, waiting their turn just to let Robert pet them.

5.) Most of them were _____ complete strangers to the Moore family, and many of them came dressed for the occasion. Some were wearing tiny cowboy hats, others wearing their finest fancy tuxedos, and some even pulled up in classic cars.

6.) And they didn't come empty-handed either. _____ showered Robert with cards, flowers, and cupcakes.

7.) Allison says it's hard to _____ how special it really was, and that her dad truly felt the birthday love.

8.) I'm Jen, and I post something _____ every day. And I'll be counting down the top stories of 2023 until the new year.

Transcript

This man just wanted to pet some dogs for his 100th birthday, so his family organized a neighborhood dog parade. This story is the number five top fun story of the year, and for good reason.

Robert Moore, who's been a dog lover for a century now, turned 100 on June 17th of this year. He didn't ask for much; he just thought it might be nice to hang out with some dogs. So his daughter, Allison, took to the Nextdoor app, encouraging neighbors to walk by their house that day so that he could see their dogs. She was hoping around 20 dogs might come by, but she was more than pleasantly surprised by the actual turnout.

Over 200 neighborhood dogs showed up, lining the block, waiting their turn just to let Robert pet them. Most of them were previously complete strangers to the Moore family, and many of them came dressed for the occasion. Some were wearing tiny cowboy hats, others wearing their finest fancy tuxedos, and some even pulled up in classic cars.

And they didn't come empty-handed either. Partygoers showered Robert with cards, flowers, and cupcakes. Allison says it's hard to explain how special it really was, and that her dad truly felt the birthday love.

I'm Jen, and I post something positive every day. And I'll be counting down the top stories of 2023 until the new year.