Anna: Hello! DC is a city for walking. In our neighborhood, I can do all my errands. Marsha, before we get ice cream, I need to return three books to the library. Where is the library?
Marsha: It is on this street on the corner.
Anna: Awesome!
Marsha: Let's go!
Anna: Marsha, I can return the books here.
Marsha: Anna, what are those in the books?
Anna: Marsha, these are letters to my family and friends back home ... four letters! Is there a post office near here?
Marsha: Um, no. The post office is far from here. But there is a mailbox across from the store.
Anna: Awesome! Let's go! Marsha, now I need to buy stamps.
Marsha: Do you have cash?
Anna: No. Is there a bank near here?
Marsha: There is a bank behind you.
Anna: Thanks, Marsha. You know our neighborhood so well. Now I have cash. I can buy stamps.
Marsha: That store sells stamps.
Anna: Wait here.
I have stamps.
Marsha: Wow, you're fast.
Anna: Thank you, thank you letters, for sending my words... my love ... to my family and friends -
Marsha: Do you have more cash?
Anna: I do!
Marsha & Anna: Ice cream!!
Anna: I love my new neighborhood! Everything is near our apartment! Even hair salons, and ice cream!
Until next time!
