Ladies and gentlemen, this is your captain speaking.
On behalf of the entire crew, I'd like to welcome you aboard flight 237 with non-stop service to New York.
We're just finishing up some final checks and expect to push back from the gate in about 10 minutes.
Please make sure your seat belt is fastened, your seat is in the upright position, and all carry-on items are securely stowed.
Thanks for flying with us today.
Flight attendants, uh, please prepare the cabin for departure.
We'll be taking off shortly.
Once again, make sure all electronic devices are either turned off or in airplane mode.
We appreciate your attention and cooperation.
Good afternoon, folks.
We've reached our cruising altitude of 35,000 ft.
You can now use approved electronic devices.
Flight attendants will begin the in-flight service shortly, offering beverages and snacks.
Weather looks good for most of the route, and we're expected to land right on schedule.
Sit back, relax, and enjoy the flight.
Ladies and gentlemen, we've begun our initial descent into the New York area.
Please return to your seats and make sure your seat belt is securely fastened.
We'll be landing in approximately 30 minutes.
The weather on the ground is clear with a temperature of 72° F.
And we'll keep you updated as we get closer.
Thank you.
Welcome to New York's JFK International Airport.
Local time is 4:12 p.m. and the temperature is 72°.
Please remain seated with your seat belt fastened until the aircraft comes to a complete stop at the gate and the seat belt sign has been turned off.
On behalf of the entire crew, thank you for flying with us and we do hope to see you again soon.
Thank you for watching.
Hope to see you again soon.
