FACTS ABOUT PARIS

eslvideo.com Quiz by: FATIMARAJABOVA

1. What was the Eiffel Tower originally intended for?

○ a.) A permanent installation

○ b.) A temporary installation for the World's Fair

○ c.) A museum

2. How many trees are there in Paris?

○ a.) 470,000 trees

○ b.) 300,000 trees

○ c.) 600,000 trees

3. What is the world's largest Art Museum in Paris?

○ a.) The Louvre Museum

○ b.) The Musée d'Orsay

○ c.) The Pompidou Center

4. What does the Statue of Liberty in Paris face?

○ a.) The Eiffel Tower

○ b.) Its American sister in New York City

○ c.) The Seine River

5. How many bridges span the Seine River in Paris?

○ a.) 25 Bridges

○ b.) 37 Bridges

○ c.) 50 Bridges

6. What was the first department store in Paris?

○ a.) Galeries Lafayette

○ b.) Printemps

○ c.) Le Bon Marché

7. How many people's remains are in the catacombs of Paris?

○ a.) 3 million people

○ b.) 6 million people

○ c.) 9 million people

8. How many bookstores are there in Paris?

○ a.) 500 bookstores

○ b.) 900 bookstores

○ c.) 1,200 bookstores

9. How many restaurants are there in Paris?

○ a.) 3,000 restaurants

○ b.) 6,000 restaurants

○ c.) 10,000 restaurants

10. What is the Center Pompidou known for?

○ a.) Historical architecture

○ b.) Cutting edge architecture and contemporary art

○ c.) Traditional French cuisine

Transcript

Welcome back to Facts Fifth Avenue where we bring you the most mind-blowing facts from around the world.

Today we're diving into the enchanting City of Paris, France. So grab a croissant and let's explore 10 fascinating facts about the city of light.

Fact number one: The Eiffel Tower was originally intended to be a temporary installation for the 1889 World's Fair. However, its popularity soared and it remains an iconic symbol of Paris to this day.

Fact number two: Paris is known as the city of love, but did you know that there are over 470,000 trees in the city? That's more trees than people in Paris.

Fact number three: The Louvre Museum in Paris is the world's largest Art Museum and houses over 35,000 pieces of art, including the famous Mona Lisa by Leonardo da Vinci.

Fact number four: Paris has its own Statue of Liberty, which faces towards its American sister in New York City. It was a gift from the people of France to the United States in 1886.

Fact number five: The Seine River, which flows through Paris, has 37 bridges spanning its waters. One of the most famous is the Pont Neuf, which ironically means 'new bridge' despite being the oldest bridge in Paris.

Fact number six: Paris is home to the world's first ever department store, Le Bon Marché, which opened its doors in 1838 and continues to attract shoppers from around the globe.

Fact number seven: The catacombs of Paris hold the remains of over 6 million people and are a haunting yet fascinating underground attraction for visitors seeking a unique experience.

Fact number eight: Paris is a city of literature with over 900 bookstores scattered throughout its streets. One of the most famous is Shakespeare and Company, a beloved English language bookstore frequented by writers and readers alike.

Fact number nine: Paris is a city of culinary delights, boasting over 6,000 restaurants from Michelin-starred fine dining establishments to cozy bistros serving up classic French cuisine. There's something to satisfy every palate in the city of light.

Fact number ten: Paris is a city of innovation, with landmarks like the Center Pompidou showcasing cutting-edge architecture and contemporary art. It's a hub of creativity and cultural exploration that continues to inspire visitors from all corners of the globe.

And there you have it, 10 fascinating facts about Paris, France. If you enjoyed this video, don't forget to like, subscribe, and hit that notification bell so you never miss a fact-filled episode from Facts Fifth Avenue. Thanks for watching and we'll see you next time.