Family is...

eslvideo.com Quiz by: Joshuitar22

1. What is the most important thing to the speaker?

○ a.) Money

○ b.) Family

○ c.) Friends

2. Why is family important to the speaker?

○ a.) They give you a resting place.

○ b.) They are rich.

○ c.) They are famous.

3. How does the speaker feel about family?

○ a.) They feel judged.

○ b.) They feel safe.

○ c.) They feel bored.

4. What does family do during good and bad times?

○ a.) They leave you.

○ b.) They support you.

○ c.) They ignore you.

5. What does the speaker's brother teach them?

○ a.) How to play cards.

○ b.) How to cook.

○ c.) How to drive.

6. How does the speaker feel when they think of their family?

○ a.) Sad

○ b.) Angry

○ c.) Happy

7. What kind of love does the speaker describe in their family?

○ a.) Conditional love

○ b.) Unconditional love

○ c.) No love

8. What does family make the speaker feel they can do?

○ a.) Fail

○ b.) Do anything

○ c.) Hide

9. What does the speaker say family is the reason for?

○ a.) getting up every day and going to work

○ b.) family reunions

○ c.) traveling to visit relatives

10. How does the speaker feel about their dad?

○ a.) They dislike him.

○ b.) They like him.

○ c.) They don't know him.

Transcript

Family is the most important thing to me. It's uh, it's important because that's all you have really at the end of the day. Family is giving yourself a resting place in this world, giving yourself a tribe. That's like the kind of beauty in it. That's the beauty of family. They're always there for you. They're the ones who have your back.

Well, I think with family you can just say whatever you want and nobody's judging you. It's your family, right? So it's blood. It's like, yeah, they're not going anywhere. You know, they're there through sickness and health, you know, good times and the bad times. You know, and we've had some, you know, we've had the good and the bad.

Family is the group of people who will stick to you no matter what stupid things you do, no matter how many dumb mistakes you make. Family is the one, the group of people that'll always forgive you and that'll always, you know, stand up for you. They appreciate me for who I am.

Right, my brother taught me how to play cards. I mean, they're good people. They love me and I love them. It makes me feel like I can do anything and that if I fall, I have someone to like pick me up because they love you. You know, we like to joke around. So when I think of them, I start to smile. It's easy to be goofy in a family because it's so safe.

Yeah, yeah, there's no judging. They're supportive of what you do and it's kind of like an unconditional love. Oh, when I think about my family, it is very gratifying to know that I have one and that they are fond of me and I'm fond of them. You look at them and they fill your whole heart. It's the most important people in your life and you have to cherish them.

Family is really the reason I do everything. It's why you get up and go to work and at the end of the day, no matter what happens, you always got these guys here to welcome you home. And there's no greater feeling in the world. It's like there's this extra piece of myself I didn't know about and now I found that piece.

What do you think about your dad? I think I like him. We're just on a journey together and there's nothing better than that.