Someone Took My Table? What to Say in English

eslvideo.com Quiz by: rmdcb

1. What did the person say when they found their jacket moved?

○ a.) Excuse me, but I was sitting there.

○ b.) Thank you for moving my jacket.

○ c.) I don't care about my jacket.

2. What did the other person think about the jacket?

○ a.) They thought it was forgotten.

○ b.) They thought it was ugly.

○ c.) They thought it was too heavy.

3. Why did the first person put the jacket on the chair?

○ a.) To keep it safe.

○ b.) To save the table.

○ c.) To make it look nice.

4. What did the second person say about reserving a table with a jacket?

○ a.) It is okay.

○ b.) It is not allowed.

○ c.) It is very common.

5. How did the first person feel about the cafe?

○ a.) It was empty.

○ b.) It was completely full.

○ c.) It was too noisy.

6. What did the first person have with them?

○ a.) A heavy tray and hot coffee.

○ b.) A book and a pen.

○ c.) A bag and a sandwich.

7. What did the second person suggest the first person do?

○ a.) Find another place.

○ b.) Sit down with them.

○ c.) Leave the cafe.

8. How did the first person react to losing the table?

○ a.) They were happy.

○ b.) They were angry.

○ c.) They were confused.

9. What did the second person say about touching other people's things?

○ a.) It is okay.

○ b.) It is not nice.

○ c.) It is funny.

10. What question did the speaker ask at the end?

○ a.) Is it okay to save a table with a jacket?

○ b.) Do you like coffee?

○ c.) Is this your jacket?

Transcript

Excuse me, but I was sitting there. You moved my jacket. Oh, was this yours? I thought someone forgot it. No, I put it on the chair to save the table while I was ordering. Well, the cafe is completely full. You can't just reserve a table with a jacket. Actually, yes, I can. That is how it works. I have a heavy tray and hot coffee. >> [sighs] >> There are no other tables left. Where should I sit? I understand, but you need to find another place. This table is taken. Fine, take your table. People are so selfish. Thank you. Next time, don't touch other people's things. Is it okay to save a table with a jacket? Yes or no? Tell us in the comments. Follow for more.