Mark, what are you going to do with the lottery money?

I'm going to plan an amazing family vacation. I want to take my wife and kids to an exotic place. It's going to be a surprise.

Are you going to buy a new car?

Not now, because our family car is very new, but I'm going to buy a really nice bike for my son Richie. He loves riding bikes.

Are you going to buy a new bike for your daughter too?

No, she doesn't like bikes. I'm going to buy new furniture for her room.

She'll love that.

What are you going to do after the exams, James?

I am going to visit my grandparents. They live in the countryside.

That sounds nice. How long are you going to stay there?

I'm going to stay for a week.

What are you going to do there?

I'm going to go fishing by the river, and I'm going to eat good food and rest. And I'm not going to open a book in the whole week.

What about you, Sam? What are you going to do?

I am going to rest for a few days too, and I'm going to start reading a new book.

That's a good plan. Enjoy your reading.

Thanks. Have fun at your grandparents' house.

What are you going to do this Saturday, Jake?

I'm going to do some homework and help my dad in the garden.

That sounds useful. What else are you going to do in the evening?

I'm going to watch a movie with my family.

Are you going to watch it at home or the cinema?

We're going to watch it at home. It's movie night. My dad is going to set up our projector in the living room.

Are you going to make popcorn?

Absolutely, it's not a movie night without popcorn. We're going to order some pizzas too.

Sounds like you're going to have a fun weekend.

Yeah. What about you? What are you going to do?

I'm going to visit my cousin. We're planning to spend the day at the beach.

That sounds great. Have fun at the beach.

Thanks, Jake. Enjoy your movie night.

What time are you going to be here, Tom?

Well, I finish work at 5:30, but after work I'm going to go home and have a shower.

Are you going to come here right after the shower?

No, first I'm going to cook some dinner for my family. My wife works until late today.

Are you going to have dinner with them?

No, I won't have time. I'm going to eat a snack while I'm cooking. After that I'm going to drive to your place.

Okay, so what time do you think you will arrive?

I think I will get there at around 7:30.

Are you going to be ready?

Of course, the match is at 8:30, so we won't have much time.

See you later then, drive safely.

Sure, see you later.
