minute and tell your partner your life story it's much detail as possible oh my gosh oh I'm trying to think of good stuff and bad stuff but I wanna but it's your story I know so I was born my New York when I was about six years old I witnessed my dad become physically violent towards my mom maybe about a few months after we ended up moving and that was the start of moving all the time I went to Buffalo State College in my last year I was like you know I've outgrown this place I don't feel like it's giving me anything I was actually like depressed that just wasn't happy and then I decided to move to California and I moved here by myself with very little money well I have a lot of faith and I believe that if you really want something it's because you're supposed to have it so I just just did it and now I'm here I have so much respect wow thank you yeah yeah thank you definitely that's inspiring so I lived in the same house my entire life let me tell College always wanted that I did everything my older brother did he started rapping so I was like I'm gonna start rapping since he annoyed by I was like dude I got into acting on my own I brought it up to my dad's I think I'm gonna major in acting he's like you sure and I was like okay so I had like this identity crisis with like career and passions and stuff like that my family's like super mix too so I had like that identity crisis today we're black white and Japanese oh wow my dad is all three yeah and my mom was black and white that's so interesting well which part all of it like that's so many different like cultures yeah I just turned 30 what yeah I think that might be the Asian part of you I'll take it whatever it is black don't crack Oh amazing skin well so I see people nodding that's true anyways I just turned 30 so that was like a really big I was like are you what are you doing right are you really gonna gonna do what you say you've been trying to do are you just gonna keep on doing this stuff so here we are okay yeah now it's like acting filmmaking shift in the culture did you put your age out there I'll put mines I'm 24 that I saw Adam let the record show I did not ask alternate sharing something you consider a positive characteristic of your partner you seemed very honest oh just in the way you like show up in the world I don't even know how to respond to that one I'm just gonna take that one in that's real you're extremely brave thank you for moving out here like you did that's I just grew up like an hour away from that way yeah you know like the stakes are just so low for me to like come out here but for you is like really a big deal so well thank you I feel like you're very confident to not in just like like I'm confident in myself but like I don't know that true um I feel like it's becoming true obviously you like to have a good time like the whole thing less so actually don't go out that often though it's not even about like you just enjoy your time I started yield stuff okay gasping oh this is good okay would you go on a second date with your partner I would totally go on a second date with you yeah I have not had a
